CLOSING REMARKS

Acting Chancellor & Dean David L. Faigman

Please remain seated until the graduates have exited the auditorium.

Greetings from Acting Chancellor & Dean David Faigman

Congratulations! It is with great pleasure and a true honor to welcome you to the 135th commencement exercises of the University of California Hastings College of the Law.

When people achieve milestones in life as momentous as graduating law school, it is a commonplace truism that they did not get there on their own. It takes a community. In fact, it takes many communities. We come together today to celebrate all of these communities.

Foremost, we celebrate the graduates. Before ever entering the halls of UC Hastings, our graduates traveled multiple and diverse paths. These paths varied considerably, from working odd jobs in high school and college to support their education (and, sometimes, their families), to public service such as the Peace Corps or Teach for America. Together with their shared academic excellence, these rich experiences prepared our graduates well for the challenges and opportunities of law school.

We also celebrate the communities of families that supported today's graduates along the way, from their earliest formative years through the excitement and, occasionally, the angst, of the law school classroom. These families are as diverse as the individuals that they supported, and include various combinations of parents, spouses, siblings, aunts, uncles, grandparents, and often just those who came together in friendship and love. Whatever the diversity of their constitutions, they all shared the commitment of support to our graduates.

UC Hastings is composed of many layers, all of which also support our mission as a law school. UC Hastings is our current students, a multitalented and extraordinary group of young people who have the potential to change the world. UC Hastings is the more than 20,000 living alumni in California and across the nation who are already changing the world. UC Hastings is our staff, whose commitment to excellence ensures the smooth operations of the school day in and day out. And UC Hastings is our faculty, whose teaching prepares the next generation of lawyers and whose scholarship brings the UC Hastings name to lawyers, judges, policy makers, and academics, both nationally and internationally.

We celebrate all of those who contributed to this momentous day, for the road of life is never traveled successfully alone, and however busy we get and however much we keep our heads down to attend to life's details, we should never forget to look up and thank those around us who have made the road so fulfilling to walk.

Best Wishes,

Acting Chancellor & Dean

Congratulatory Note from The UC Hastings Alumni Association President

May 15, 2016

On behalf of the UC Hastings Alumni Association Board of Governors, congratulations to you on your graduation from UC Hastings, and welcome to the global family of UC Hastings alumni.

You are joining an active and illustrious group of more than 20,000 UC Hastings graduates. We are busy at work as lawyers, judges and business leaders across California and around the world. We give our time, talent and resources to influence change, right wrongs and provide pro bono assistance to those in need. We are also essential partners in building a strong and vibrant bridge between the UC Hastings academic community and the larger legal professional world that you are entering now.

You have already been shaped by your UC Hastings education and by the friendships and professional connections you made at the law school. But that was just the beginning –

So take today off, celebrate, but then get active. As a UC Hastings alumni, I ask you to both give and take:

- It is never too early to start building your network. Remember that there is a strong group of alumni mentors waiting to meet and embrace you.
- Whatever your field of interest, we are there. Call us, ask us to buy you a cup of coffee, introduce yourself to us at an industry event – we are excited to get to know you and to help you along your path.
- And remember where you came from. Look back to UC Hastings and pay it forward. Donate your time to judge a moot court or the value of a billable hour to support a scholarship fund. Stay involved!

As of today, you are now one of us. We welcome you with open arms to the UC Hastings alumni community and look forward to working with you ... wherever your path may lead.

Warm Congratulations,

Marilyn Klinger '78, President
UC Hastings Alumni Association

NANCY GERTNER

United States Federal Judge (Ret.) and Professor of Law

Judge Nancy Gertner is a graduate of Barnard College (B.A. 1967) and Yale Law School (J.D. 1971) where she was an editor on The Yale Law Journal, and has a Yale M.A. in Political Science. After more than two decades as a criminal defense lawyer, civil rights and women's rights activist, in April of 1994 she was appointed by President William J. Clinton to the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. In September of 2011, Judge Gertner retired the federal bench and become part of the faculty of the Harvard Law School teaching a number of subjects including criminal law, criminal procedure, forensic science and sentencing, as well as continuing to teach and write about women's issues around the world.

She has been profiled on a number of occasions both as a civil rights/women's rights and criminal defense lawyer and as a judge in the Boston Globe, the ABA Journal, Boston Magazine, and The Wall Street Journal. Both careers, lawyer and judge, have been honored by numerous organizations. On August 9, 2008, Judge Gertner received the Thurgood Marshall Award from the American Bar Association, Section of Individual Rights and Responsibilities. She is the second woman to receive this honor; Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg was the first. In the spring of 2010, Judge Gertner received the Morton A. Brody Distinguished Judicial Service Award in a ceremony at Colby College, and the following year, Massachusetts Bar Association's Hennessey award for judicial excellence, and also an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Brandeis University. And in July of 2012, Judge Gertner received the National Association of Women Lawyer's highest award, the Arabella Babb Mansfield award, presented to a female attorney "whose career embodies qualities of professional achievement...and valuable contribution to the advancement of women's interests in an under the law." (Justices Ginsburg, Kagan and Sotomayor were past recipients.) In August 2014, she received the Margaret Brent Women Lawyers of Achievement Award from the American Bar Association Commission on the Status of Women in the Profession.

Judge Gertner was described by Massachusetts Lawyer's Weekly as one of "The Most Influential Lawyers of The Past 25 Years," and was voted by its readers as the "best" federal judge in Boston.

Pro Bono Recognition

The California Bar and the American Bar Association encourage attorneys to devote at least 50 hours annually to the provision of pro bono (free) legal services. At UC Hastings, we believe the delivery of pro bono services is an integral part of legal education and the practice of law. Therefore, graduates engaged in pro bono are recognized with the following distinctions.

Tony Patiño Fellows-Elect

The Tony Patiño Fellowship was created to support those individuals whose personal and academic histories show leadership, academic achievement, ethical and honorable conduct, good moral character, dedication to human values, participation in public service activities, well-adjusted personality and good judgment. The Fellowship provides educational and living expenses and is renewable for two subsequent consecutive academic years based upon the fellow-elect's personal and academic performance and his or her participation in the legal profession. Upon receiving the two renewals of fellowship, the final approval of the renewal committee, and a Juris Doctor degree, the fellow-elect is then known as a "Tony Patiño Fellow."

Candidates for the M.S.L. Degree – May 2016

In 2012, UC Hastings launched the Master of Studies in Law (M.S.L.), an advanced degree program aimed to equip experienced professionals from various arenas with a sophisticated understanding of the law. The M.S.L., originally aimed at health and science professionals with the support of the UCSF/UC Hastings Consortium on Law, Science, and Health Policy, has since expanded to include business and technology professionals, as well as those experts in their fields wishing to design their own program of legal study. Equipped with an education in an array of legal subjects, UC Hastings M.S.L. degree holders return to their fields able to "think like a lawyer."

Caps and Gowns

In medieval cities, the everyday dress of many citizens was similar to that worn by the participants in this commencement ceremony. The costumes of the medieval guilds and early religious orders evolved into academic garb in the 12th and 13th centuries when universities were first taking form. Different degrees are symbolized by slight variances in the color and design of gowns and hoods. The three degrees being conferred today adhere to this academic tradition.

The original purpose of the gown was to provide warmth in unheated buildings. The design indicates the degree earned. The gown for the master's degrees (LL.M. and M.S.L.) is untrimmed and has an oblong sleeve. The gown for the doctoral degree (J.D.) is trimmed in velvet with three bars across the sleeves and facing down the front; it has a bell-shaped sleeve.

The hood traditionally served as a cover for the tonsured head and indicates the subject matter of the degree and the faculty from which it was awarded. It is placed on the graduate to recognize the academic accomplishment and to welcome the graduate into the society of professionals. At UC Hastings, hoods are lined with a blue chevron on a gold ground to represent the university colors. The color of the velvet edging on the hoods represents the subject in which the degree is earned: for law, the color is purple. The tassel is placed on the left side of the cap, which indicates an advanced degree.

The Mace

Traditionally at UC Hastings, the Associate Academic Dean carries the mace and leads the academic procession at commencement. Historically, the mace was seen as an image of warlike battle. Centuries ago, kings began to change this image by replacing spikes with precious gems and jewels to use the mace in ceremonies as a symbol of peace and leadership. Today, the mace is used in ceremonies as a symbol of authority.

UC Hastings proudly displays a mace which was donated by the Class of 2005. The mace was designed to reflect the history, goals and ideals of UC Hastings. The finial at the top points the Way to the Future. The three rings, or beads, around the finial represent Mind, Reason, and Intellect. The large ball holds the medallion, a symbol of UC Hastings itself. The first bead under the medallion symbolizes UC Hastings as the oldest law school in California. The two beads below represent Morality and Professional Honor. The three beads around the top part of the shaft represent the Vision of the Founders, the Hopes of the Professors, and the Desires of the Students. The body of the mace represents that which is conveyed in the Present. The pointed tail of the mace represents that which was gained from the Past. The mace itself is made from California redwood.
